

SCHEDULE

8:30 – 9:00 Bagels and Coffee (Woodruff Library Research Commons, 3rd Floor)

9:00 – 9:50 Opening Keynote: (Woodruff Library Research Commons, 3rd Floor) “Mobilities and Mobilizations in the City That’s Too Busy” Katherine Hankins, Associate Professor in the Department of Geosciences at Georgia State University

10:00 – 11:00 Concurrent Session A: (Research Commons, 3rd Floor)

Digital Tools for Mapping the Built and Natural Environment

10:00 – 11:00 :: Concurrent Session B: (Woodruff Library Room 312, 3rd Floor)

Urban Governance at the Intersection of Politics and Finance

// Coffee Break :: Woodruff Library Research Commons, 3rd Floor // 11:10 – 12:30 :: Panel Presentation :: (Woodruff Library Research Commons, 3rd Floor)

The Changing Socio-Political Environments of Atlanta’s Black Neighborhoods

12:30-2:00 :: Lunch (Woodruff Library Research Commons, 3rd Floor)

Library and Archive Roundtable

2:00 – 3:00 Concurrent Session A: (Research Commons, 3rd Floor)

Public Housing Transformation in Atlanta: The Impact of Relocation on Residents’ Health

2:00 – 3:00 Concurrent Session B: (Woodruff Library Jones Room, 3rd Floor)

Population and Place: Immigration

// Coffee Break (Woodruff Library Jones Room, 3rd Floor) //

3:10-4:10 Panel Presentation (Woodruff Library Jones Room, 3rd Floor)

Neighborhood Nexus and the Metro Atlanta Equity Atlas: New Tools for Understanding the Changing Dynamics of Metropolitan Atlanta

4:10 – 5:00 Closing Keynote: (Woodruff Library Jones Room, 3rd Floor)

A Spatial History of Rio de Janeiro: Bridging the Micro-Macro Divide with Historical GIS

Zephyr Frank, Associate Professor of Latin American History and Director of the Spatial History Project at Stanford University

5:00 – 6:00 Reception (Woodruff Library Research Commons, 3rd Floor)